

Community Feedback

We strive to work alongside our families in a meaningful way. We want to thank all the participants who attended the family engagement night and everyone who completed the surveys. Here are some of the takeaways

- Inuktitut language exposure and development support
- Cultural teachings
- Social gatherings with country food
- Consistency in programs, with advance notice.

Our Commitment to you

Moving forward, we have committed to:

- Weekly drop-in play groups
- Cultural songs, storytelling, arts and crafts
- Monthly community events to bring families together and connect with each other in a fun environment.
- Consistency and advanced notice.

Drop-In Cultural Activity

Engaging in hands-on activities for families to participate in Inuit specific experiences. Through creative arts, sewing and games, this is a no-registration-required program based on a first come first serve process due to limited space.

For the summer months, the program is offered monthly on a Thursday evening from (4:00 pm - 7:30 pm). Please see monthly calendars for schedule and details.

What's New?

Weekly Drop-In Play Group

The weekly Drop In Play Group for children ages 0-6 is a no-registration-required program that is first-come, first-served due to limited spaces. We offer cultural activities for children and adults, a space for families to connect with community and staff, and an opportunity for children to grow and play.

We are partnered with Ottawa Public Health and offer PIO services. A registered Nurse is available bi-weekly on Tuesday, 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm to answer pre/postnatal questions.

Program takes place weekly on Tuesdays and Wednesdays (12:00 pm - 3:00 pm). Light lunch and snack will be provided. Please check the monthly calendar for more information

Ilagiit

This program is offered one Saturday a month for families to connect, participate in fun activities and events, and create meaningful memories.

Please see the monthly calendars for the schedule and details
